

THE GIFT OF Giving

Summer 2022

A CSSW Publication for Donors

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Dear Friends,

On behalf of all of us at CSSW, I am pleased to introduce our inaugural philanthropy newsletter, "The Gift of Giving." I am grateful to be part of a faith-filled and charitable organization, and I recognize that we would not exist without the generosity and continued support of partners like you.

The Agency is unique in that it provides services to clients from infancy to older adult, and I am proud to be able to spend each day with our employees and volunteers who work tirelessly to provide invaluable support, expert care, and compassion to our clients.

I hope you will find "The Gift of Giving" both informative and inspiring. As we plan for future issues, we look forward to sharing many more stories about the impact of your giving now and in the future. Because of your faithfulness, our mission endures.

On behalf of the entire Board of Directors, our staff, and those we serve, I thank you.

JIM LIBS BOARD MEMBER HIGHLIGHT

Leader Service

CSSW had been blessed with outstanding Board leaders and members throughout our sixty-one-year history. Jim Libs is one of our governance volunteers who found a way at every turn to serve as an instrumental leader for the Agency.

For the past eight years, Jim has been a member of CSSW's Board of Directors, serving on both the Executive and Finance Committees. In these roles, he provides guidance and expertise as the Agency faces the challenges that many nonprofit organizations do. Jim provides a calm, unflappable demeanor that sets the tone for inviting sound discussion and decision-making by the Board, always placing the needs of our clients first.

Jim also served on the Marnee and John DeVine Foundation Board, CSSW's fund-raising arm, many of which as the Foundation Board's Chair. With his support and direction, our annual event Brunching for a Cause, (formerly Cooking for a Cause), continues to evolve and see increasing revenue and guest attendance.

A Family Commitment

Dan Weingartz, president of his family's company, has a superpower, and it's not a leaf blower. Keeping a family business strong in the third generation takes a sustained commitment to the values of its founder. And, Dan, like his siblings who work in the business, has made sure the Catholic principles instilled in him as a child, guide every aspect of the company's operations.

But, this sort of prioritizing is no surprise. Their father Ray Weingartz imparted in his children a simple formula for priorities - God first, then family, then business. This recipe for success also guided company founder Ray "Buster" Weingartz when in 1945 he opened the first of the family's six stores.

With such a foundation and a commitment to Catholic teachings, it's natural that this successful family shares their love of Christ by performing corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The Weingartz Family Foundation is an outstanding partner of CSSW, whose unfailing generosity supports our shared work to care for the most vulnerable in our community.

"We are grateful for the many ways God has blessed our family and we recognize it's our responsibility to care for our community in whatever ways we can," says Ken Weingartz, Vice President of Parts and Service. "Because we know of the many ways in which CSSW cares for the most vulnerable in Washtenaw County and beyond, ours is a natural partnership."

"CSSW appreciates Weingartz's generosity and is pleased to recognize the company as a $15,000 Diamond Sponsor, for the third consecutive year, for our annual Brunching for a Cause fundraising event taking place in October," says CSSW President Peg Bravo. "This renewed sponsorship builds on a long history of support and we are so grateful."

For information on Brunching for a Cause, please see the "Save the Date" notice on page 12. For more information about Weingartz products and services, visit www.weingartz.com, or call their Jackson Avenue, Ann Arbor store at (734)-239-8200.

Jim and his wife Jean are members of St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Ann Arbor. Jim attributes his strong Catholic faith among the reasons he has given his time and talents in service to CSSW.

"It is extremely gratifying as a board member to be associated with a non-profit that does such great work through a group of professional and compassionate people. The agency's culture of quality provides a focus on performance-based outcomes. It's not just transactional—it's personal," says Jim.

He added, "The agency has been accredited by the Council on Accreditation and the National Children's Alliance, demonstrating excellence in standards of care for over twenty years."

While his Board commitment ends in December 2022, Jim will always be a part of the CSSW family, and we are especially grateful for his years of volunteer service. We also are pleased to recognize Jim and Jean Libs as Honorary Chairs for this year's Brunching for a Cause event taking place on October 2nd at Travis Pointe Country Club. Thank you both!

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

Military Standards

Chuck's love of food started early, cooking dinners for his family while still in his teens. Eventually, his resume was filled with restaurant and grocery store work. But, as much as he loved food, what Chuck really wanted to do was serve his country. So, at the age of 21, he enlisted in the Army. And, the United States wasted no time sending him off to train as a food service specialist for two tours in Afghanistan.

Chuck's maturity, natural leadership, fortitude, and positivity were soon noticed, and he was called upon to join his platoon as a tank gunner—in addition to his responsibilities as a food service specialist.

As with so many of our servicemen and women, coming home was a tough transition for Chuck. Without sufficient income, Chuck needed help with the basics. That's when he found out about CSSW's Northside Food Pantry.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Leadership, Integrity, Vision

A Message from Our Chair

Blessings to all who care about the underserved and needy in our community.

As I quickly scanned the long list of supporters of CSSW, I am inspired by the commitment and generosity (regardless of the amount of the gift) that these contributions demonstrate.

Long-term supporters have blessed CSSW to answer God's call to care for our brothers and sisters through the ups and downs of many years. WE ARE SO GRATEFUL FOR THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF ALL!

We appreciate the trust you place in the great executive and staff team at the Agency. I believe that trust is well deserved, especially in the last two years. The underserved continued to receive goods and care from CSSW, even during the COVID-19 pandemic, thanks to the commitment of its staff; the Agency made a big difference in the lives of many during that period.

You can be assured that CSSW remains committed to the neediest in our community and will adapt as appropriate to meet their future needs in a manner consistent with Catholic Social teaching.

In the future, you can expect to hear more from CSSW as we explore additional ways to assist people in the community and local parishes. Increasing the connection between parishes, our community, and the Agency will help to make this possible.

I appreciate your prayers for Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County and its clients, executives, staff, and Board Members. Please know that we pray for each of you.

The Food Pantry gave Chuck the boost he needed to get through that rough patch. And, he was grateful for the support, but, being Chuck, he couldn't help noticing ways he could help out—cleaning, sorting, organizing the garage, etc.

So, he offered to volunteer—and he never stopped.

In addition to improving every facet of food allocation and storage, Chuck brought his sunny attitude and sense of humor to serving clients directly. And, when the lockdowns came in 2020, this seasoned veteran wasn't fazed in the slightest. More concerned with the needs of others than his own health and safety, Chuck didn't miss a single day of work during the pandemic. In fact, Chuck only wanted more. So, he began volunteering at our main building—helping with maintenance, lawn care, and other groundskeeping.

When asked how he managed such an unyielding workload during his years of military service, Chuck credited his parents for instilling discipline and a strong work ethic in him at an early age. The staff at the Food Pantry aren't sure how they ever functioned without him. Their descriptions of Chuck couldn't be more glowing: "Hard-working, loyal, forward-thinking, dependable—you can count on him, no matter what. He always gives 110%, and then some. He's everyone's right-hand man." And, on top of all that—he makes everyone laugh.

As for Chuck, he doesn't know what all the fuss is about. He just stays focused on whatever it is that needs to be done. In his mind, life is pretty straightforward: "It's all about treating people the way you want to be treated."

Spotting Chuck at work might not be easy—he's always in motion. But, if you volunteer at our Northside Food Pantry, you'll probably see him long enough to give him a salute. We don't know anyone who deserves it more.

It's all about

HELPING SENIORS AGE AT HOME

Angels Among us

With an ever-growing population of seniors in our community, CSSW has been facing an avalanche of requests for our Home Maintenance and Safety Services—a program that provides simple home repairs and safety installations for seniors who want to maintain their independence. In December of last year, our maintenance technicians were doing the best they could with a 2006 Ford F-150 that was requiring increasing and extensive repairs—over $8,000 in the past five years. Our crew knew it was only a matter of time before a more reliable vehicle would be needed.

CSSW's commitment to providing home services to our senior clients simply could not be fulfilled without a reliable mode of transportation. So, as Christmas approached last year, we made a personal appeal to a certain someone with a history of community support.

We took a chance that our need to serve seniors at home was compelling – a new truck, along with a hitch, snow plow, ladder rack, and toolbox. The estimated cost? $40,000. Our need was urgent, but we were uncertain of the response we would receive. After all, everyone is busy in December, and we were asking for quite a big gift. But, then again, isn't Christmas all about miracles?

Just two days after we sent the request, this thoughtful benefactor—a widowed, nonagenarian, to be precise— sent us exactly what we asked for! Was it a miracle? We'll leave that question to the theologians. But, for us, it may as well have been. Acutely aware of the vulnerability of seniors, this heroic donor knew she was fortunate to have the resources to live on her own. But, like any superhero, she wasn't going to just sit back and relax while others were in trouble.

You may be thinking our hero has been supporting CSSW for decades, so this gift wasn't so unusual. But it was unusual. This was her very first gift – one that will make a difference in the lives of so many seniors.

But, she wasn't the only one who helped. Our long-time supporter, Gene Butman Ford in Ypsilanti, stepped in to finish the job. And, in May we drove off with a new F-250 Ford truck!

Started by Gene Butman in 1957, this family-owned business has been headed by Gene's son, Ken Butman since 1980. The Butman family has partnered generously with us, both as donors and leadership volunteers.

As Tom Butman, General Manager at Gene Butman Ford, explains, "Our family and business have been fixtures in the Ypsilanti community for decades. We care about our neighbors and appreciate the opportunity to give back to help others."

Our donors turn lives around. This new truck allows our technicians to safely provide routine household repairs, safety device installations, lawn mowing, and other tasks for seniors in need. Keeping seniors in their homes for as long as possible plays a critical role in maintaining their mental and emotional stability. For the community, these measures also ease pressure on the nearly saturated market for senior housing. Our Home Maintenance and Safety Services program accepts fees, but no senior is denied help if they can't pay. Simply put, the impact of this new truck is immeasurable.

"We are so grateful the donor whose thoughtful generosity made it possible for CSSW to acquire this new vehicle," says Kasey Kerr, Director of Senior Services. "And, with the Butmans' additional support, we'll be able to take care of some very basic needs of older adults in the community."
