

Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County Presents

“PAWSITIVE COMFORT”

Social Support Therapy Dogs Workshop

FEATURED SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Michelle McCarthy is a nationally recognized Certified Dog Behavior Consultant and Certified Therapy Animal Consultant with the International Association of Animal Behavior Consultants (IAABC). Michelle has completed advanced certification programs in canine behavioral studies and has provided training and consulting services in Southeast Michigan since 1999.

Kit Fuller is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker who works with children, youth and adults at Samaritan Counseling Services of Ann Arbor. She treats anxiety, depression, trauma and school and family issues including grief, adjustment, life transitions and chronic pain. Kit is assisted by her co-therapists Pippa and LEO, both Golden Retrievers.

This event will identify potential settings and populations where dogs may provide a therapeutic benefit, recognize the differences and appropriateness of Animal Assisted activities versus Animal Assisted therapy, determine the specific roles of dogs in a therapeutic/clinical setting and identify characteristics that make a good therapy dog.

When: Thursday, November 21, 2013

From: 9:30 – 11:30 am

Where: Morris Lawrence Building, Washtenaw Community College
